BOARD	CHRONO

1. On 18 February 1953 [] not KMOSEK in Stuttgart.

2. KMOSEK reported that he had straightened out his personal affairs with the Finance by paying his back taxes for two years. This cost KMOSEK over 800 DM. He also stated that his family were at last able to come from Sweden and were now in Stuttgart. The delay in their arrival had been caused by a two month illness of his son.

3. He further reported that he had recently received a communication from a Dr. Graf, of Muenster, Postschlussstrasse 7, stating that the doctor would like to see him in Muenster on Saturday the 21st of February. Dr. Graf had been put in contact with KMOSEK through a mutual friend of KMOSEK's. It is believed by KMOSEK that Dr. Graf works for some section of British Intelligence. KMOSEK plans to see Dr. Graf and to learn what he has to offer. He will then report to [] the outcome of this meeting.

4. Concerning his future work for General Gehlen, KMOSEK reported that he had had a definite offer from them, but this was now being held up because they thought he had been a 100% Nazi. This belief as to KMOSEK's Nazi connections sprang, he believed, from the fact that while he was operating in Finland he was responsible only to the boss in Berlin. Gehlen's office does not believe that such confidence would have been given to a man unless he had been a 100% Nazi. KMOSEK explains this by saying that it makes no difference to him as an intelligence man whether he works for a king, a dictator or a democracy. He does not know when he shall hear again from Gehlen's office, but if he does, the work would consist of one of two possibilities. First, the running of operations against Poland from a base in either Munich or Berlin. If he operated out of Munich, he would run his operations through Berlin and Vienna. The second, was to be an instructor in an agent school.

5. Once again KMOSEK stated that he would like to continue to work for us in another sector. [] replied that he knew nothing about anything except what went on in Germany. KMOSEK asked him if it would be possible for [] to find out if there might be any work for him in the Polish field. [] stated that he was sure it would be impossible for him to learn anything about this field but he would see what could be done. KMOSEK asked [] for another contact.
